ORDER:

It has been brought to the notice of the Government that Sri R.V. Venkateseswara Rao, Deputy Director, Ground Water Department, Karimnagar, who is continuing in the present station for more than 4 years i.e., since 6-7- 2005 has been reportedly indulged in a criminal case against which an F.I.R. was also registered in the concerned Police Station on a complaint made by Smt. J. Veeramma, W/o Odelu alleging interalia that he has scolded her in a filthy language and also manhandled her during the meeting held by R.D.O., Pedapally on 16-1-2010. Further, Chairman Zilla Parishad and others also made several complaints. The District Collector, as well Director, Ground Water Department also requested the Government to immediately transfer him from the existing station and initiate action against him.

2. Government after examining various complaints and the preliminary enquiry report given by the Revenue Divisional Officer, Pedapally and the recommendations of the Collector and District Magistrate, Karimnagar and the Director, Ground Water Department have come to a conclusion that there is a strong prima facie to proceed against Sri R.V. Venkateswara Rao, Deputy Director departmentally.

3. Government, therefore, directed that pending initiation of disciplinary action, Sri R.V. Venkateswara Rao, Deputy Director, be transferred and posted as Deputy Director, Ground Water Department, SRBC., Nandyal under public interest to enforce decency and decorum in administration.
